CLASS OF 1959

SENIOR HISTORY

The third graduating class of W. W. Samuell High School came together at mid-term in our Sophomore year when our big, beautiful high school building was opened. This was a year of many changes for us. We had just become adjusted to high school ways when we moved to the new building and there met many new friends. Again we had to adjust to a new school life.

Our Sophomore favorites were Brenda Martin and Jerry Lovelace. We elected Ann Thompson, Jeanie Brown, and Brenda Martin as our princesses to the Valentine Dance that year.

As Juniors we had become accustomed to the routine of high school life. We elected Suzanne Black and Jerry Lovelace as our Junior favorites. Rona Ellis was our representative as Football Princess. To represent Samuell in the Cotton Bowl Tournament Leaann Garrett was chosen. Our Valentine princesses that year were Suzanne Black, Jeanie Brown, and Ann Thompson. The Junior majorettes were Orpha Savage and Suzanne Black, and our Junior cheerleaders were Kaye Stewart, Lynn Ganze, and Ann Thompson.

Finally we were Seniors and felt that we were on a pedestal. Our class president was Fred Greene, our vice president, Ronald Douglas, and our secretary, Danah Hodges. Our favorites were Suzanne Black and Fred Greene, Most Popular; Danah Hodges and Gene Crossley, Most Likely to Succeed; Connie Russell and Ronald Douglas, Most Athletic; Brenda Martin and Steve Humphrey, Best All Round; Charlotte Brooks and Randy Ray, Most Courteous; Steve Green and Charlotte Dial, Wittiest; Linda Thompson and David Allen, Most Friendly; Linda Bell was chosen football queen. Our nominees for basketball queen were Suzanne Black and Madalyn Hudgens. Suzanne Black was elected Valentine Queen and Linda Bell, Sharon Danyluk, and Danah Hodges were Senior princesses. Suzanne Black was also elected D.A.R. candidate. Our head cheerleaders were Fred Greene and Kaye Stewart. Randy Ray, Linda Bell and James Craft were the other Senior Cheerleaders. Jerry Lovelace was president of the Student Council that year. Valedictorian of our class was Willeam Balusek and salutatorian, Gene Crossley.

We have reached an important milestone in our life. We now must travel forward to accept the responsibilities of adulthood. May God watch over us and direct us as we go.

Danah Hodges
Class Editor

THE SENIOR GAME

The senior cheerleaders prepare for the game.

The senior majorettes and band, led by Larry Freeman, march on to the field.

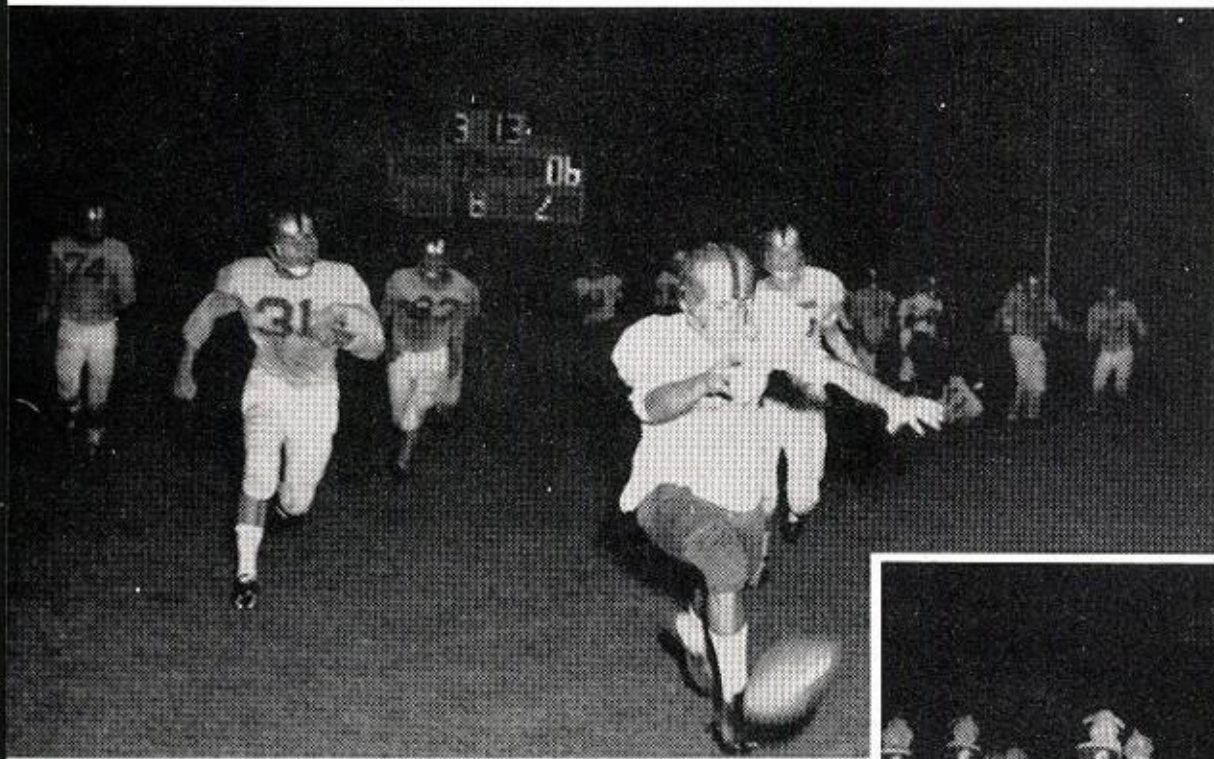

The beat-niks of the senior drill team perform for the last time.

Drummers in the senior band seem to be having more fun than anyone. Say, it does sound nice!

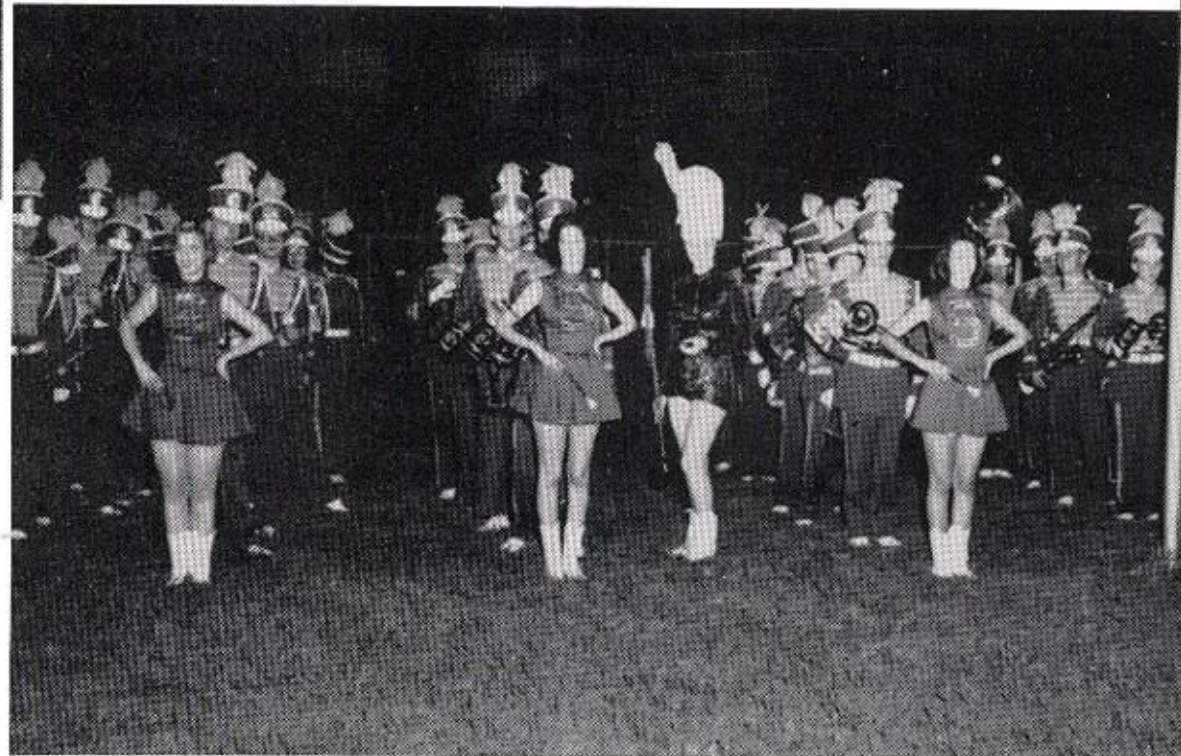

THE SENIOR GAME

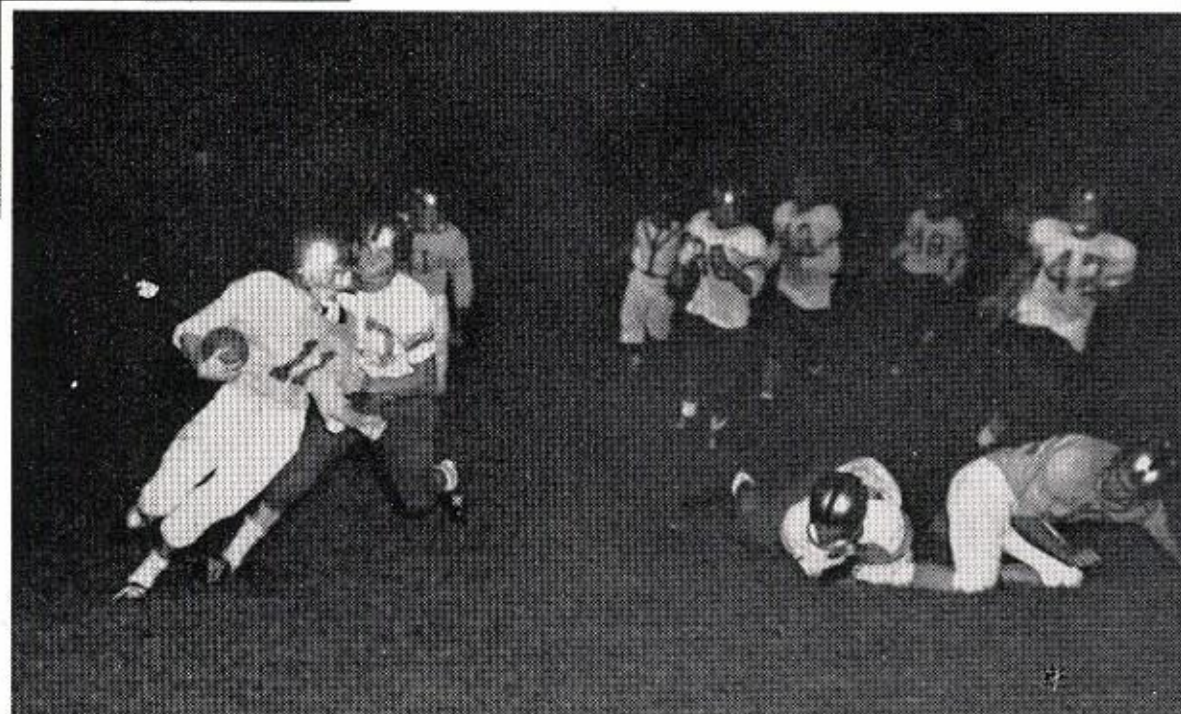

Robert Mays stretches for the ball while Robert Marshall and Joe Dixon close in.

The Junior Band and majorettes prepare for the half-time activities.

This is a switch—Billy Walker runs the referee down.

Frank Hess runs around right end while Charles Hancock prepares for the kill.

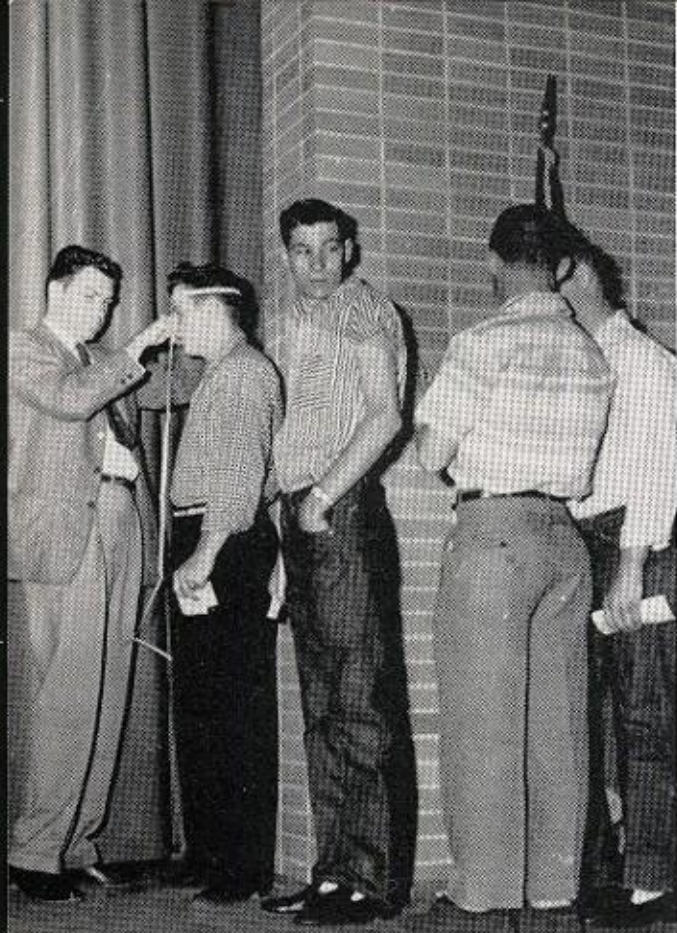

SENIOR SNAPS

There was a great deal of excitement in the cafeteria as the seniors lined up for baccalaureate.

There was even a line for Harold Smith as he paid for his cap and gown.

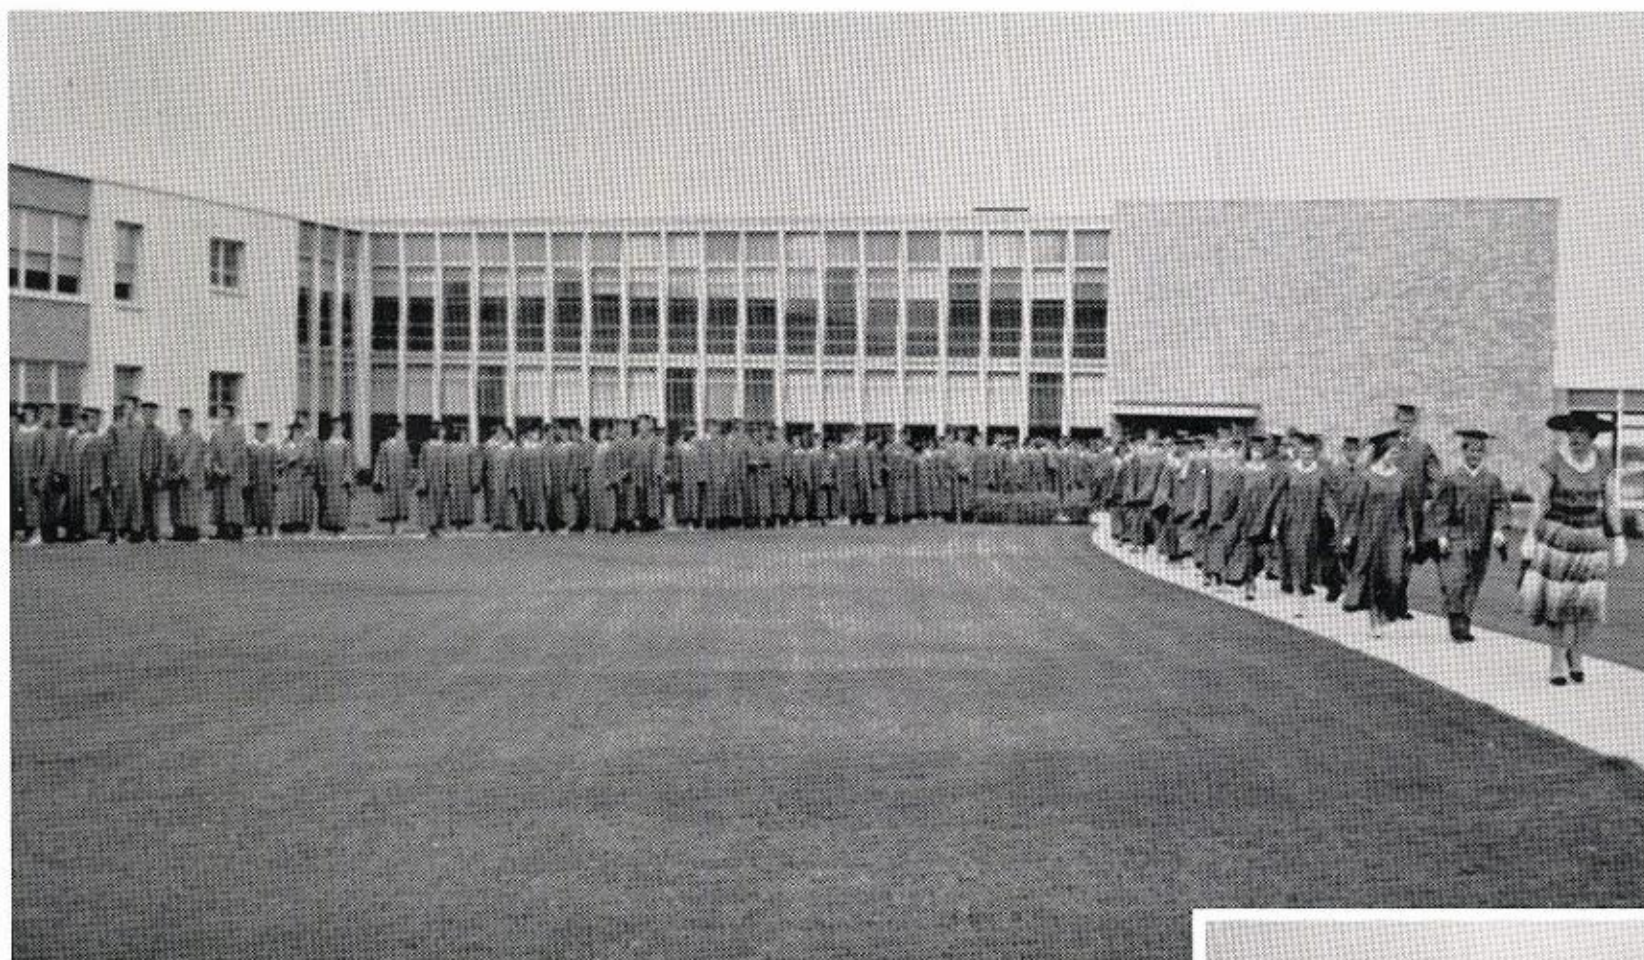

Mike Evans attempts to pass his gown over the heads of others in order to get out early.

SENIOR SNAPS

Graduates are fitted for their caps and gowns. Stanley Dabbs seems quite happy about it.

Seniors leave auditorium after baccalaureate.

Some seniors seem sad, some seem happy as they turn in their caps and gowns after graduation.
